HIGH PRIVATE VERY FAST

TAKES THE GREENFIELD STAKES HANDILY AND BREAKS THE TRACK RECORD.

Tod Proves a Failure, but Arionette Wins for Cella-A Disputed Placing-Big Chief Scores in the Handicap.

New York, May 5.—If Tod had won the closing race at Jamaica today, the public would have completely routed the layers, but Rossfenton, at 40 to 1, came along and took care of the favorite in easy fashion, making the first break the layers enjoyed during the day. Arionette, winner of the opening race was the second choice, but was so well supported at a liberal price that there was little of the favorite money left when settling had been accomplished. Tod, favorite for the closing race, seemed like one of the best bets of the day, but was bothered some at the start and shuffled back to a rail position, from where he was unable to get through and was lucky to be second.

There was considerable comment over the placing of the horses in this race. To many it appeared that Dander was second, but when he was not placed at all, there was consternation. Dander and Tod were lighting it out next to the rail while David Warfield closed up fast on the outside. The crowd could not understand how the officials could split two horses so close together as Tod and Dander were and place a horse on the outside between them. The angle at the Jamaica track is especially bad and the judges say there could be no doubt as to the correctness of the placing. The stewards in the box just over the judges found the placing correct. New York, May 5 .- If Tod had won the closing the box just over the judges found the placing correct.

High Private made his second public appearance in the Greenfield Stakes and the public generally was not inclined to put such a high estimation on the son of Oddfellow, as on the occasion of his former outing. But High Private, after being cut off early and outrun by Voodoo for the first quarter, came on to beat Preceptor by three parts of a length in 53\(\frac{3}{2}\), a new track record for four and a half furlongs. Voodoo cut High Private off sharply at the start, then tried to make a runaway race of it, but ran to the outside fence in the middle of the turn, leaving High Private in the lead. He was gamely challenged by Preceptor in the stretch, but was the gamer of the two. It appeared that High Private was straight and all out, but Dugan, who rode, said the colt had a lot left. Judgment on High Private must be suspended until he is seen under different conditions. The habit of running out seems to have a strong hold on Voodoo and makes him a bad racing proposition.

Adriana, one of the good two-year-old fillies in the Whitney barn last season, was a starter in the handicap. She looked big and soft, but showed a good turn of early speed and has developed into a fine-looking three-year-old. After the race she seemed to be ailing, but investigation revealed a wisp of hay so caught and held in her jaw annoy her. She was all right after it was renumby her. She was all right after it was removed. Senator Cassidy, whose opposition to the anticacing bills brought about their defeat, was at the track today. He spent the afternoon in the clubouse. To the newspaper men he said, as if to account for his presence at the track at this time: 'Information should precede legislation. Light often lispels darkness and ignorance. I am simply taking a little rest and trying to understand what is calling forth all this hysteria against the race tracks, and seeking by personal observation to understand what we are trying to destroy."

we are trying to destroy."

Further than this the senator would not talk for publication. He is a frequent visitor to the track in the height of the season.

Jockey Flynn took his first mount since being hurt at Aqueduct on Arionette in the opening race. It was his first winner in the east this season.

J. V. Lemaire has purchased the three-year-old Spooner from the Newcastle Stable.

James R. Keene will sell eleven horses in the paddock at Jamaica Saturday. They include the three-year-olds, Besom and Sandal, and nine two-year-olds, some of which are winners.

RACING IS POPULAR IN LONE STAR STATE.

Prominent Texas turfmen are highly gratified rith the advance made by thoroughbred racing uring the last few years, and so successful has een the management of the sport as conducted by the Breeders' Association of the state that it ill not be long before the Lone Star state will ave a first-class autumn circuit within its own orders. This encouraging state of affairs is due, any believe, to the liberal and indulgent rulings f the association, which does not tolerate arbiary decisions or star chamber methods. Charges re heard before a committee and disposed of in try fashion.

are heard before a committee and disposed of in Jury fashion.

One hundred and ten entries have been made for the Texas Futurity, which will be run during the State Fair at Dallas. It is a two-year-old race and worth $5,000, and governed by rules similar to those of the Sheepshead Bay Futurity.

Texas now boasts of sixty thoroughbred stallions, including Right Royal, be Reszke, Robby Beach, First Mate, Leonid, Dungarven and Gorman, Right Royal is standing at the Lazarus place. He is a striking individual and one of the best horses sent to the races by the English sire Rapallo during his briedarcer at Elmendorf. He cost Newton Bennington $10,000, and seemed destined for great things, but was handlcapped by a pair of unsound legs. Mr. Lazarus is doing little in the racing line, but is getting together some good mares to breed to Right Royal. De Reszke is standing at the farm of Richard Watkins, who made a good plater out of him after the Jockey Club Breeding Bureau turned him out because of his lack of size. Throughout the entire state interest in racing and breeding is in a healthy condition.

John Dillon Wins the Steeplechase-Al Busch Deceives His Owner Badly

Baltimore, Md., May 5.—A cloudy, damp day and the first heavy track of the meeting had their effect on the attendance at Pimlico this afternoon and also on the racing. Heretofore scratching has been conspicuous largely by its absence. Today there were numerous withdrawals and the card, which promised much, was reduced in several races to small fields.

In the Crickmore Steeplechase, named after the veteran New York racing official, only three of seven horses on the program went to the post, but the trio were so well matched that it was a lively betting race. John Dillon was favorite and won easily.

the trio were so well matched that it was a lively betting race. John Dillon was favorite and won easily.

W. Shields, who has been having more than his usual share of luck at Baltimore this spring, sent Al Busch to the post in the opening race and thought him as good a thing as he did Gerald D. a few days ago, but Al Busch, like Gerald D., was second, Lucille R. winning like a good filly.

Proclivity, which graduated from the maiden class in the fifth race, won easily. This mare is a half-sister to Lux Casta, Henry T. Oxnard's filly that was second in the Futurity a few years back.

A party of New York turfmen came over to back Woodline, which won the seventh race. The colt was an odds-on favorite in the race, but the way he won made it look as if 1 to 10 would have been a good price.

J. E. Seagram, president of the Ontario Jockey Club, and one of Canada's leading turfmen, has secured first call on the services of jockey Fairbrother from May 1 to August 1. Fairbrother is one of the most promising jockeys of his weight riding today, and before another season rolls around hebids fair to be one of the top-notchers. R. S. Davidson, who holds the contract on the boy, picked him up a few seasons ago and developed him. Fairbrother will probably ride a few races around New York before going to Canada, but he will be in Toronto a week before the Woodbine Park meeting opens.

Sam Hexter purchased from Roger Minton yester-

Toronto a week before the Woodbine Park meeting opens.

Sam Hexter purchased from Roger Minton yesterday the three-year-old Apple Toddy.

Hurlock, which started in the opening race, is the largest two-year-old in training here. He stands close to sixteen hands and is built in proportion. He is one of Thomas Clyde's band and was developed by W. F. Presgrave.

Wilton Lackaye ran in the name of T. F. Coles today, and Coles' carelessness in not having his own colors up cost him ten dollars, he being fined that amount by the stewards.

Scottsdale was not eligible to start in the second race and was scratched by the stewards.

Jockey Barnett's license was suspended for the balance of the meeting for disorderly conduct. The steeplechaser Kemp Ridgeley will be shipped to Belmont Park tomorrow.

Robert Clifford and Charles Cash were among those who came over from New York to back Woodline in the seventh race.

KING EDWARD'S FINE DERBY CANDIDATE.

Perrier Wins His First Race of the Year and Is Favorite for the Derby,

King Edward's Persimmon—Amphora colt Perrier is now a steady 5 to 1 favorite for the English Derby, to be run at Epsom June 3. Those next in demand are: Mountain Apple, 8 to 1; White Eagle, 10 to 1; Primer, 20 to 1 and Landerdale, 25 to 1.

The reason for Perrier's position was his victory in the forty-ninth Newmarket Biennial Stakes at the Craven meeting April 22. The King's colt was a 6 to 4 on favorite, beat nothing, but ran impressively and won easily by two lengths under 119 pounds. Before the Biennial race Perrier was highly tried over the Rowley Mile.

One of the best of the English critics says of the colt in the Sporting Life;

"As to Perrier's appearance, I cannot honestly say that it greatly impressed me. He is a big, massive colt, splendidly topped, with powerful quarters and hips, but with it all there is rather more than a suggestion of coarseness. He does not fill the eye as a Derby horse as we would like him to do. However, there is a world of wisdom in the old saying, 'handsome is as handsome does,' and, though Perrier went down to the post in rather a scrappy fashion, he came back in a way that won the admiration of all beholders."

Elow is given Perrier's tabulated pedigree:

Stedette.... { Voltiguer. Mrs. Ridgway. Simon. Fly. Duchess. Fly. Dutchman. King Tom... { Harkaway. Pocahontas. Adeline..... { Ion. Little Fairy. Lord Clifden. | Newminster. The Slave. (L'dyLangden {Kettledrum. Haricot. Y. Melbourne Melbourne. Clarissa. LaB'leHelene St. Albans. Teterrima. Speculum Vedette. . . Doralice. (Ladylike.... Newminster. Zuleica. | Hermit..... | Newminster. | Seclusion. (Ratcatcher's Rataplan. Daughter Lady Alicia. St. Albans... Stockwell. Bribery. Viridis..... { Marsyas. M. of Palmyra

According to present intentions, Perrier runs for the Two Thousand and Newmarket Stakes before the Derby. He is a very big horse, standing 16 hands 2 inches and hits the ground extremely hard when galloping, whilst at the same time he requires a great deal of work.

MUDDY TRACK AFFECTS PIMLICO RACING. SOME EXCELLENT RACING AT OAKLAND.

Oakland, Cal., May 5.—The beautifully bred five-year-old Frank Flittner demonstrated what a really good lorse he was by taking up 116 pounds and winning the Metealf Handicap at Oakland today with the obscure jockey Rettig up, from Cabin, J. C. Clem. Logistilla, Edwin T. Fryer, Northwest and A. Muskoday, all lightly weighted horses of good class. In the actual running Cabin's advantage at the start proved his undoing in the end. Lacking the very necessary adjunct of a fast pacemaker, he was compelled to make his own running and, despite a slow first half, succumbed finally to the stout-hearted top weight in the belated ciosing sprint to which the race had been reduced.

The sport closed with a six furlongs sprint, in which Thomas H. Williams' brilliant sprinter and record breaker, Prejuicio, was a stafter, held at prohibitive odds in the betting, and thought to be unbeatable by those opposed to him. But the black whiriwind, with Miller up, was defeated by Burning Brah, at 20 to 1, in about the most pronounced upser of the present meeting. The remainder of the card was devoted to selling platers.

The crack Applegate apprentice jockey, A. Walsh, saistained a painful injury to his right eye whileriding Wap in the third race. He was struck by a stone and unable to see afterwards. He was quickly taken to a specialist, who saw the optic nerve had been paralyzed. All of Walsh's riding cngagements for the remainder of the afternoon were cancelled.

Jockey McIntyre became suddenly indisposed after his defeat on Cabin in the fourth race and was unable to ride afterwards.

Wap was claimed out of the third race for $1,000 by H. G. Bedwell, a mighty cheap horse at that price. W. Walker also claimed Netting out of the fifth for $755.

J. B. Smith, a starter in the third race yesterday, ran into the fence, sustaining a fracture

J. B. Smith, a starter in the third race yesterday, ran into the fence, sustaining a fracture of the left shoulder. Gargan, the jockey, was seriously injured and was removed to the hospital.

Jockey Kent was suspended for ten days by starter Dwyer for misbehavior at the post.

ENGLISH TRAINER OF THE OLD SCHOOL.

How John Day of Danebury Repeated with the Famous Virago.

Famous Virago,

Few public men in his way of life had more marked personal peculiarities than John Day, of Danebury. It was, in fact, impossible to mistake "Honest John" on his horse. He had a very noticeable hollow in the back, good width of shoulder and a peculiar cast of countenance there was no mistaking. He was altogether a well-made little man; but he was carreful, safe man, and seldom made a mistake. It was as a trainer that John Day made his mark. There was no better judge of a young one, and no one knew better what to do with him if he could only stay to learn all John could teach kim. But his preparation was proverbially severe and not many could stand it.

"Well, John," said Isaac Sadler to him one day as he was watching three of his two-year-olds at exercise; "Well, John, what do you think of them?" John "beggared his limbs" and hinted something not very complimentary.

"Oh, never mind," answered Isaac: "I will tell you what they have got, John. They have got twelve sound legs amongst them and that's, more than you can count amongst your fifty up there." On another occasion John himself asked a friend's opinion of five youngsiers of Lord Bentinck's that had just come up from Doneaster.

"Why, they won't stand your training a fortnight," blurted out the other.

"My training. What d'ye mean by that, sir?" "Well," said his friend, softening down a bit, "I think the Danebury Hill will be a leetle too much for the Meller of the Banebury Hill," and he was sure to come a "cracker." Despite the fact that a pot now and then boiled over, people knew this and treated the stable, even its most fanciful humors, with a degree of respect.

Few horses have ever created such a sensation as Virago did when she was brought to Epsom to run for the City and Suburban and Metropolitan Stakes of 1854, and thus the mystery which long had shrouded her was dispelled. For the Suburban young John Day of Danebury had a great favorite in Marc Antony, but he got frightened when his father said he had a better mare than even Crucif he was of his chestnut.

"How did you manage to get her in so well, John?" inquired Lord Derby, with a sly twinkle in his eye—for no one relished a conversation with old John Day more than his lordship.

"I will tell you how I did it, my lord," was the reply; "I ran her 'big' at Shrewbury, and told Wells to pull her up directly she was beaten. Capital, wasnt' it?" And away went Lord Derby, highly amused with the explanation, though he was too product to offer any comment, upon it "Theorem." too prudent to offer any com manby, in London Sportsman. comment upon it .- Thor

GOOD RACING IN PROSPECT AT WINNIPEG.

Winnipeg, Manitoba, is destined to become an important racing center, in the opinion of Robert J. Mackenzie of that city, who was a recent visitor at Jamaica. He is a large grain dealer of the northwest and one of the stockholders in the new mile track recently built there by Charles Leavitt, who built the Belmont Park track. He believes with a great many other prominent Canadians that in Winipeg, with its 100,000 or more inhabitants, situated in one of the finest and most fertile farming sections on the continent and inhabited by people mostly of British descent, who have inherited a natural love for the sport, horse racing will always remain in favor and that in time that section will breed many high-class horses.

Mr. Mackenzie will be remembered as one of the brothers who bought Tourenne in preference to Montgomery when both were offered at $10,000 each at Aqueduct about the beginning of the fall season in 1906. They rejected Montgomery because one of his ankles was slightly filled, due to an insignificant accident in training.

DERBY TO RANK OUTSIDER

UNCONSIDERED STONE STREET DEFEATS SIR CLEGES BEFORE THE USUAL BIG CROWD.

A Very Heavy Track Contributes to the Unexpected Result-New Betting Mediums Prove Popular and Successful.

Louisville, Ky., May 5.—The running of the thirty-fourth Kentucky Derby will always go down in history as a race where conditions triumphed over better class.

To attempt to place Stone Street, the winner, in the same class with George J. Long's flashy Sir Cleges, or consider him above a selling plater, would be folly, yet Stone Street decisively took the measure of Sir Cleges and won the Kentucky blue ribbon in the easiest kind of manner. Heretofore Stone Street las been running with cheap platers and on numerous occasions in the past winter has failed to finish in the first three. Conditions today were greatly in his favor and he attested to this by running the best race of his career. Some doubts were expressed before the race as to Sir Cleges' ability to run well in the going, but his recent trials indicated that his better class would carry him to victory. He made a game, but futile effort and was beaten at the end by nearly two lengths in the slowest run race since the inaugural Derby won by Aristides. Dunvegan, in a strenuous drive, managed to last long enough to retain third place from Synchronized. The disappointment of the race was the showing made by Milford. He was at no time after barrier's rise, a serious contender and finished far back in the ruck.

Notwithstanding the threatening weather and the poor field that composed the starters in the Derby, a crowd estimated at 12.000 was on hand to witness the resumption of racing at historic Churchill Downs. Among the numbers were Kentucky's leading citizens, and each seemed to thoroughly lend himself to the occasion and derived plenty of enjoyment.

In the betting shed the scenes were no less animated and, as in the morning, when the auction pool selling started, a shout and a round of applause greeted the return of the pari-mutuels as the medium by which bets were made. Many of the old-timers who were carried back through years, felt their biood tingle while listening to the click of the mutuel machines and, of course, predicted success for this style the exception of Mortiboy, winner of the last race, were downed.

The opening race went to Goldproof in easy fashion. Dainty Dame tried desperately to overtake him in the first half, but tired and had to be hard ridden to outstay Deuce for second place. The poor showing of Colonel Bob caused judge Price to seek an explanation from jockey Taylor, but the rider was allowed to go with a warning that in future his work would be closely observed.

Crowding at the start in the second race was responsible for a mishap that caused Lillian Ray, ridden by J. Lee, to fall. The rider sustained injuries to his shoulder that caused the cancelling of his engagements for the rest of the afternoon.

Alice, which showed good form at New Orleans, was favored by good racing luck and this enabled her to lead the others to the finish.

Financier, from a fast start, led all the way in the third race. The finish for second place was a thriller and the gainer of it undecided until the judges' placing announced Warner Griswell had taken it from Divorcee. Barney Schreiber's Servicence was given a flying start in the lifth and this enabled him to lead the others for the entire trip and beat Fundamental.

Mortiboy, also favored by the start in the last race, spread engled the others and won as his rider pleased from Nancy. The latter was neglected in the speculation and paid a record price in the mutuels, her backers receiving $407.60 for each $5 invested.

the speculation and paid a record price in the mutuels, her backers receiving $407.60 for each $5 invested.

Starter Holtman, who was to have officiated, was forced to be absent on account of his train coming here from St. Louis being stalled by a washout. William Shelly dispatched the fields during the afterneon and acquitted himself creditably.

William Fitch, the pool seller, says the total of the auctions was nearly $20,000 today, ten times as much as he expected to seil. He says it was to him a surprising day's business, and that the public took to the pari-mutuels and auctions as if they had known the system all their lives. Fitch says he can be quoted as saying the days of booking are numbered. Messrs, Grainger and Winn are highly pleased with the day's results.

Thomas B. Cromwell acted as associate judge to Charles F. Price during the afternoon. William Shelly is the regular associate judge, but his duty as starter gave Cromwell an opportunity to assist in the judges' stand.

Delegations were here from Nashville, New Orteans and other far southern points.

W. O. Parmer, J. W. Russwurm and W. W. Darden came up with the Nashville delegation.

T. C. Anderson, representative in the Louisiana Legislature, was among today's visitors. He says that the turf situation at New Orleans is not as bad as the anti-racing folk would have one believe. Legislation in the way of curtailing some of the abuses in evidence on Louisiana tracks is a foregone conclusion, but the big tracks will not be molested. One hundred days of racing next winter seems to be the general desire in that section of the country, was his opinion.

O. O. West, St., one of the oldest turfmen in the west, was at the course and, as has been his wont for the last twelve years, wagered a bottle of wine with Milton Young that he would be on hand to witness the running of the next Kentucky Derby.

Jack Chinn, chalrman of the Kentucky Racing Commission, was an early visitor, but had to leave shortly after the running of the Derby, on account of news that

NOTES OF THE TURF.

A full sister to St. Avon has been foaled at J. D. Millin's ranch near Sacramento, Cal. The New York turf critics are after jockey Shilling with sharp pens and more or less reason. The ider can do nothing to satisfy them.

Roy Mentry will do the riding for George P. McNeil during his campaign over the circuit in British Columbia, Alberta and Manitoba.

C. R. Ellison, who has been in Chicago for some days, left for New York Sunday and will live there and race his stable on the Metropolitan tracks all

The partnership in Watiere entered with the Jockey Club to run in the name of the B. & O. Stable. has been cancelled. The colt is now the property of C. A. Metzger.

A partnership in the two-year-old Tom Reid, by Marius II.—Wealth, has been lodged with the Jockey Club by P. T. Chinn and J. B. Malatesta. The colt will be raced in the name of Mr. Chinn.

W. Cabill's crack sprinter, Smiley Corbett, which was injured in a fall during his last race at Oakland early in March, is showing such marked improvement that his owner believes he will be in condition to race before the close of the meeting at Oakland.

head Bay under the auspices of the Coney Island Jockey Club has closed until November 1. There was an average attendance of sixty-one and the boys showed much aptitude in the lessons which were especially arranged to meet their requiremnts and so as not to conflict with their working hours.

Among the better known jockeys at Oakland who will be seen in the saddle during the Seattle meeting are J. Hayes, A. Walsh, W. Kelly, Sandy, Buxton, Heatherton, Scoville, Lycurgus, Butwell, Gargan, Borel, Dearborn, Galindo, Rettig and Finn. Those who now intend to go to Butte include C. Miller, Hildebrand, Charboneau, Fischer, McClain, Post, A. Williams, Stuart, E. Clark and Vandusen.

Post, A. Williams, Stuart, E. Clark and Vandusen. A special train of six cars was required to transfer the stable of John E. Madden from Benning to Belmont Park. Forty-one runners, including a number of eligibles to the English Derby and Oaks of 1909, and eight trotters owned by his sons, Edward and Joseph, which will be sent to Poughkeepsie, were in the consignment. While in New York, Mr. Madden bought Chibilo, a half-brother to Vice-Commodore, from General Nelson A. Miles, besides a carload of mules which will be sent to his Hamburg Place.

Wonner—B. g, by St. Simonian II.—Van-a-Clar (trained by E. L. Talley).
Went to post at 2:35. At post 1 minute. Start straggling. Won driving; second and third the same.
Montclair, from a striding start, set the pace throughout and scored in a game drive, but was lucky.
Wap, crowded out and nearly left, closed an immense gap and was best. Gypsys King ran in forward pursuit throughout and was a fast going third. Orilene, away badly, quickly got into striking distance, but tired finally. Nellie Racine, after nearest pursuit to the stretch, failed to stay. Lord of the Forest, after prominent contention for six furlongs, quit badly. Lord Filigrane was shuffled back early and never dangerous. Adean retired sundenly on the far turn and ran a bad race. Hilgert lacked his usual speed. The winner was entered for $1,709; no bid.

Went to post at 2:59. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won driving: second and third the same. Frank Flittner, luckily and forwardly placed throughout, gamely outstayed Cabin in a hard stretch drive. The latter beat the barrier, but was handicapped for lack of a pacemaker and forced to make the running and this beat him finally. J. C. Clem indulged with an early lead, dropped back with the accelerated pace of the last half, but was a good horse today. Logistilla trailed, as usual, and failed to get up In a fast closing sprint. Edwin T. Fryer made up ground rapidly in the stretch. Northwest loomed up on the far turn, but tired as if short after seven furlongs of forward contention. A. Muskoday lacked his usual early speed.

Went to post at 3:49. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handlily: second and third driving.
Burning Bush, after patient and forward pursuit of the pacemaker, drew out suddenly and unexpectedly midway of the stretch and won going like a flash. Prejuiclo, from a slow start, when excessively urged failed to improve his position early and was climbing badly until in the last stxteenth, when he suddenly began to overhaul the leaders. Silver Stocking outbroke the others and made the running by a good margin for five furlongs, then tired suddenly. Raleigh made up much ground in the last balf. Collector Jessup is best in mud. Cloudlight was badly outpaced from the start by the leaders. St. Elmwood ran a bad race.

*Sold in field. *Sold as field. Time, 24\frac{4}{5}, 50\frac{2}{5}.

Winner—Ch. f, by Fatherless—Eostre (trained by M. Burton).

Went to post at 3:08. At post 2 minutes. Start poor. Wen handily: second and third driving. Alice, looky throughout and favored by the going, was a forward contender to the stretch turn, where she took the lead and, in a game finish, won going away. Inela, away fast, showed the most speed for a half, but fired in the stretch run and had to be driven hard to last long enough to save second place. Miss Hapsburg had to overcome early interference and finished with a rush. Icaria closed a big gan and was going fast at the end. Neoga, hard ridden all the way, swerved in the stretch and will improve. Java Due had no mishaps. Maid of Gotham can do much better and was in a jam most of the way. Lillian Ray was caught in a jam soon after the start and thrown.

Overweights—Inela, 5 pounds; Neoga, 2\frac{1}{2}; Tenorett, 1; Muzetta W., 5.

Winner—Ch. e, by Box—Paradise Won (trained by W. H. Baker).

Went to post at 3:41. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. Financier showed much speed, went into a long lead after going a quarter and was never in danger, winning casing up. Warner Griswell had to overcome interference in the first quarter but, saving ground when turning into the stretch, got up in the last stride for second place. Divorcee was prominent most of the way and finished gamely. Estella C., probably best, was away slowly and had to go wide throughout, but finished fast and would have been second in a few more strides. Ida May was shuffled back after going a quarter and came again near the end. Ralbert ran poorly. The winner was entered for $700; no bid.

Winner—B. c, by Longstreet—Stonenellie (trained by J. W. Hall).

Went to bost at 4:20. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Stone Street, favored by the going and in prime condition, ran the best race of his career, followed Banridge close up to the three-quarters post, where he went into the lead and easily held the others safe for the rest of the trip. Sir Cleges disliked the going and shrawled repeatedly, made a game effort to get into the lead, but the going was against him and, on a dry track, would probably have won off. Dunvegan ran fairly well, showing improvement over his Lexington form. Synchronized closed a big gap in the last half, was going fast at the end and would have been second in a few more strides. Banridge showed the most early speed, but tired badly after going three-quarters. Milford, in poor form, was never a factor. St. Valentine, probably much the best, closed a tremendous gap after being practically left at the post. Washakie, favored at the start, ran fairly well for three-quarters.
